PROGRAM FACILITATOR

Girls Inc. of Long Island Program Facilitators implement Girls Inc. programming... with the goal of inspiring girls to be strong, smart, and bold!

About:

Girls Inc. programs cover a range of topics that support our essential services of Healthy Living (Strong), Academic Enrichment (Smart), and Life Skills (Bold). Curriculum addresses relevant issues facing girls, including but not limited to: healthy/toxic relationships, social media, navigating school, bullying, financial literacy, goal-setting, career exploration, and more. Provided curriculum and activities are research-based, intentional, interactive, and expose girls to a wide variety of experiences

Program Facilitators deliver Girls Inc. programs by working directly with teen girls at the middle school and high school levels in grades 6-12 (ages 11-18), and in groups of 15-25 girls.

Facilitators support the organization's program and outcomes evaluation strategy.

The position requires regular travel to and from assigned program locations and requires the employee to transport materials to each site, as well as complete all required program planning and administrative duties.

Viable candidates must have demonstrated experience working with groups of youth, ages 10+, in a professional setting.

Bilingual/Spanish-speaking individuals and women of color are highly encouraged to apply
